

CLASS OF 2020 CRUSADER OF THE MONTH

Anna Lynne Riegler

MONTH HONORED: October 2019

Anna Riegler was selected by Mrs. Kelly Dornbos and Mrs. Laura Ogren

We are honored to nominate Anna Riegler as our choice for October Student of the Month. On a daily basis, Anna demonstrates exceptional character, sincere compassion, and a genuine commitment in all that she does. Over the years, we have watched Anna grow and evolve into the type of person that others should strive to be like.

St. Francis of Assisi said, "The deeds you do may be the only sermon some persons will hear today." This quote fits with Anna's character -- her charitable deeds are inspiring. She leads and is an example to her peers. Anna recognizes what needs to be done and how to do it, all while maintaining her composure and positive attitude. This will afford her great success in the future. She always has a smile on her face and a kind word for her friends and teachers when she encounters them in the hallways and in the classroom. Anna understands that things aren't just handed to you, so if you want to achieve great things, you have to put in hard work and effort.

Anna has an infallible commitment to anything she does. She challenges herself by taking honors and AP classes. She has dedicated countless hours to volleyball, tennis, basketball, Student Council, NHS, the musical, Choir, and Yearbook, and we are certain that her leadership and dedication have made each program richer.

For her senior service project, Anna is working for MPFFH (Muskegon Provides Food for Health). She is also a member of the Rotary Club LCC Conference. In her spare time, Anna enjoys playing guitar and singing, playing tennis, and studying psychology. Because Anna knows how to be efficient and organized, she maintains a high GPA on top of all of her extracurricular activities.

Anna is a person of strong convictions who demonstrates a great compassion towards all. She would like to attend the University of Michigan where she plans to major in neuroscience. Her desire to be involved in the world around her will make the lives of so many others brighter because she is a motivated, sincere, and talented human being who has already made her MCC community a better place.

Anna attends St. Francis de Sales Parish and is the daughter of Andy and Andrea Riegler.
